

I am sending a few comments, as I feel further study needs to be done with input from all of WAPA's customers, as any decisions made will affect many who rely on the marketing and delivery of Federal hydropower.

In no event, should WAPA consider using the IRP process as a means of implementing some of the end-use programs noted in the March 16, 2012 memorandum.

Roberta Rohrer